BITE OF SPIDER.

Causes Death of Mr. William Johnson's Child.

Little William, the child of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, East of the city, died Tuesday morning. Several days since it was bitten by a spider and inflammation set in, finally culminating in blood poisoning, which produced death. Everything possible was done to allay inflammation, but in vain, and the little fellow passed away Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock. He was only 15 months old. His remains were brought to this city yesterday and entered in Hopewell. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the neighborhood at the unusual manner of the taking off of their little one.

State Odd Fellows.

The annual session of the Kentucky I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge met in Shelbyville Tuesday. About 1,000 delegates were expected.

Mrs. George E. Gary, who is visiting in Louisville this week, will visit her mother in Bowling Green before returning home.

INSULTING PROPOSAL.

Todd County Negro Charged With Attempted Assault.

TRENTON STIRRED UP.

Frank Leavell Arrested Near Pembroke and Taken to Elkton.

Trenton is very much aroused over an insulting proposal made Saturday night by an unknown man to Miss Bright Burrus, who lives with her widowed mother in the outskirts of Trenton. Soon after supper a rap was heard on the window of the room in which Mrs. Burrus and her daughter were seated. Taking a pistol in her hand she went to the window and asked what was wanted. She was answered with an insulting proposal. Miss Burrus shot through the window at the man who took to his heels. She then ran to the porch and fired a second time as he disappeared in the darkness. Neighbors were called in and investigation showed that the man had a peg-leg. Suspicion at once pointed to Frank Leavell, a one-legged negro of Trenton, who could not be found.

A vigorous hunt was kept up for him until Tuesday morning, when he was captured near Pembroke about three o'clock, by a Pembroke posse. He was brought to this city Tuesday night and lodged in jail. Officers from Todd county arrived yesterday to take him to Elkton for trial. Miss Burrus could not recognize the man in the darkness and the evidence against Leavell is purely circumstantial. He protests his innocence. Leavell is a copper-colored negro about 30 years of age, whose home is in the town of Trenton. The Burrus family is one of prominence and excellent standing in Todd county and it can be established that he is the guilty man there will be serious danger of a lynching.

HUNG JURY

In The Case of Guy Lyon At Russellville.

The jury at Russellville in the case of Guy Lyon, charged with criminal assault on Mary Gladder, failed to agree. Eleven were for a ten-year sentence while the foreman was for death. The foreman was bedecked with colors and paraded around the town.

The Jim Lyon case is now on. Mrs. Anna Lyon, mother of Jim Lyon, died Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock. This is the second witness to die since these trials were called. The other was Fletcher's wife.

CHOLERA INFANTUM

Robs The Home of Marshal Jackson, of Pembroke.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson, of Pembroke, last Monday night and claimed for his own their little boy Joe J. The little fellow, an account of his bright and cheerful disposition, was a general favorite, though he was only a little over a year old. He died of cholera infantum, after a few days illness. Mr. Jackson is Marshal of Pembroke and he and his bereaved wife have the deepest sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Elder D. M. Green, of Marshall county, has been a Baptist preacher 52 years and is still in vigorous health. The Mayfield Messenger says he was born November 30th, 1819. He joined the Baptist church in 1853. He is yet doing much preaching and is the father of 17 children.

MADE THREATS

Because Their Services Were Dispensed With.

Geo. Diemer, construction foreman of the Home Telephone Co., putting in the McKenzie exchange, had trouble with four discharged negro employees Monday. They left their work Saturday without permission and spent the day in town. When they returned that night Mr. Diemer handed them their time. Their names were Chas. Downey, Babe Boyd, Chas. Roscoe and John Williams.

They took their discharge with bad grace and Monday went in a body to Mr. Diemer's camp, he alleges, armed and made violent threats against his life and finally announced their intention of returning that night to kill him.

Several of Diemer's friends of the McKenzie neighborhood volunteered to protect him and a search for the belligerents was instituted, but they could not be found. Diemer came to town Tuesday night and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the four men, who live in this city. Up to three o'clock yesterday afternoon they had not been found.

He died Nov. 13, 1902, nearly 4 years after making his last payment on his policy. His widow was very much surprised and gratified to learn that under the company's non-forfeiture system, the policy had been extended 5 years and 23 days, and to promptly receive a check for $1,500 for herself and children.

A WHALING STATION

SPITZBERGEN MOST INTERESTING DURING THE SEASON.

Owned by No Country—Norway's Laws Regarding Whale Fishing—The Busy Scene Presented at the Bay.

The steam yacht Veetia is one of the few cruising yachts that included a call at that great whaling station, Spitzbergen, this year in its itinerary of a cruise to Norway and the North Cape. Although the passage there is not always attended with the most propitious weather—occasionally it is even impossible to enter Recherche bay of ice fjord owing either to the dense fogs or ice floes that with some wind block the entrance—those who are fortunate enough to get in are well repaid for their trouble. Spitzbergen comprises two principal islands, separated by Hinlopen strait, and a great number of smaller islands. The northeast land is imperfectly known and seldom visited, for it is surrounded by a girdle of ice but rarely broken. The west land is accessible every year from the beginning of July to the end of September. Although Spitzbergen is owned by no country, the English have a house situated in ice fjord (Advent bay), Germany has one in Hornsund, and the Norwegian government has just acquired one from some trappers, who built it last year and who wintered there on Axel Island in Bell sound. Owing to the laws lately passed in Norway prohibiting whale fishing on the coast, the Norwegian whaling fleet has now made Recherche bay their headquarters. Although their appliances for dealing with all the carcasses are at the moment insufficient. As this season has been a very good one, the bay presented a busy scene, which added a further interest to its wonderful glaciers and natural grandeur. Each blue whale's carcass yields about 70 barrels of oil, value $1,050, and a certain amount of the bone is also of value. The sperm whale, from which the best bone is obtained, and from the head of which alone almost as much oil as can be obtained from a blue whale is extracted, is fast becoming rare. The men employed are not very well paid; they make about $300 per season, but few can stand more than two seasons in succession.

The glaciers in Recherche bay are its most noted feature. The east glacier is one and a half miles wide and 100 feet high at its face; the continuous falling of enormous masses of ice makes it exceedingly dangerous to approach closely. As these masses break away wonderful crevasses of the most beautiful shades of blue are revealed.

The Fox glacier is about one mile broad, its lateral moraine being 150 to 200 feet in height. Large numbers of fulmar petrel infest the bay, gorging themselves on the carcasses of the whales which are cut adrift when done with and being almost unable to get out of the way at anyone's approach.

Remarkable Metal.

Although the existence of tantalum, the new material employed for incandescent lamp filaments, has been known for 100 years, it is only very recently that the metal has been prepared in a pure state, says Youth's Companion. This is effected with the aid of the electric furnace. Tantalum combines extreme ductility with extraordinary hardness. When red-hot it is easily rolled into sheets or drawn into wire, but upon being heated a second time, and then hammered, it recovers its hardness. Music Pupil's Handicap.

A certain teacher of music in a New England town never allows a chance of self-glorification to escape him. One of his pupils, a blind young cripple, recently passed a stiff examination, and the delighted music master rushed to the editor of the local paper with the fact.

He was sorry he did, however, when this paragraph appeared in the journal.

"Our young townsman, who, besides being blind, has lost the use of his legs, was prepared for this examination by Mr. B., a local teacher of music. Yet, despite all these handicaps he came out of the ordeal with flying colors."—Chicago Tribune.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got fat." writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by L. L. Egin and Anderson & Fowler, the up to date druggists at Hopkinsville.

Mrs. Oliver Pence has sued Robt.

The slanderous utterance was to the effect that Mrs. Pence sustained im-her deceased husband.

There seems to be little if any interest taken in the proposed constitutional amendment abolishing the fraudulent secret ballot and authorizing a return to the viva voce system. The Kentuckian opposed the change in 1891 and its editor voted against the new constitution largely on account of the secret ballot provision. He will vote for the amendment this year.

Another of the big insurance companies, the Mutual Life of New York, has confessed that it contributed $40,000 of the company's funds to the Republican campaign fund in 1904. $35,000 in 1900 and $15,000 in 1896. The company also paid last year $72,000 for luncheons for its employees. Lawson's campaign will open the eyes of the whole country to the methods of the so called mutual insurance companies. No wonder insurance is high.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars and is survived by a wife and one child. He was born and raised in this city, but had lived for a number of years in Nashville. He has many friends here who will regret exceedingly to hear of his untimely death.

GRAND JURY ADJOURNS.

An Indictment Returned
Against Cumberland
Telephone Co.

DAMAGE SUIT TRIED.

Prominent Young Physician
Adjudged of Unsound Mind.

The grand jury adjourned Tuesday, after returning another batch of fourteen indictments, making thirty-eight in all.

A bill was found against the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company, charging them with having, through and by the order and direction of their manager, J. D.
Russell, willfully and maliciously,
with force and in the night time,
entered upon and damaged the property of the Home Telephone Company, by cutting wires, etc. Eight employees of the Cumberland company, it will be remembered, were indicted on a similar charge during the first week's meeting of the grand jury.

Several commonwealth cases have been disposed of this week. Porter Abney, col., charged with grand larceny, was given one year in the penitentiary, and Alonzo Barbee, col., indicted on a charge of petit larceny, was given thirty days in the county jail.

The case of Alfred Lisansky, col., under indictment charging him with willful murder, was continued until the 7th day of the February term.
Lisansky is in jail.

In the case of Arthur Miles, charged with malicious shooting, an order was made releasing his sureties, he being out on bond, and the case was dismissed and stricken from the docket.

Dr. Harry W. Watt, of Longview, a prominent young physician, was adjudged of unsound mind and ordered placed in the asylum for treatment. Dr. Watt has been in very bad health for some time.

The suit of Mrs. Mary J. Cannon against T. J. McReynolds and others for $1,000 damages, was disposed of Monday afternoon. The jury returned a verdict for defendant.
Plaintiff claimed that a bridge built over Sherrill's creek, on the Greenville road, was constructed in such a manner that the channel of the stream was narrowed until it was not sufficient to carry off the surplus water during the wet season and that her land was overflowed and damaged.

The damage suit of B. F. Wells against F. B. McCown was dismissed, settled.

An Ideal Medicine.

MISS LOUISE MATHER,
11 Church St., Burlington, Vt., Vice-President Bureau of Exchange, writes:

"Your medicine is an ideal women's medicine and by far the best I have known to restore lost health and strength."

"I suffered for several years.
My back ached, I had bearing down pains, and frequent headaches."

"I would often wake from sleep in much pain that I would suffer for hours before my eyes would close again. I dreaded the long nights as well as the weary days."

"I consulted two physicians, hoping to get relief. Finding that their medicine did not seem to cure me, a friend advised me to try Peruna."

"I am certainly glad that I followed her advice, for Peruna
was the only medicine for me.
Every ache and pain disappeared in four months and I am in perfect health now."

"My earnest advice to suffering women is to try Peruna, for I feel sure they will not be disappointed in it."— Louise Mather.

Enjoying Splendid
Health.

Mrs. L. E. Tyler, Santa
Monica, Cal., Secretary Santa Monica
Musical Society, writes:

"I was troubled for over three years with systemic catarrh, complicated
by female weakness and inflammation."

"This induced frequent headaches, nervous irritability and sleeplessness, which nothing could relieve until I tried Peruna."

"I began to feel better after I had taken the first bottle and improved from week to week until at the end of about eleven weeks I was entirely well.
I am pleased to say that I have enjoyed splendid health now for nearly a year. I have a fine appetite, enjoy sound sleep and do not suffer from more headaches or other pains."—L. E.

IDAHO IDEA

Better Laws and Better Men to Administer Them When Women Vote.

Mr. Avery C. Moore, of Idaho, in a Labor Day speech at Portland,
Oregon, said, among other things:

"Do you ask me how the despotism of power may be overthrown?
Brothers, I believe in the ballot—the easiest weapon to use, and the one weapon of which power stands in deadly fear. I believe the ballot should be in the hands of every American woman. There is no phase of existence that woman has not brightened, and the American political system will become free from tarnish and take on lustre whenever woman is established in the elective franchise."

"We would not return the wives and mothers of Idaho to subjection any more than we would take the other backward steps into barbarism.
The happy experience of the past few years has rendered us proof against ridicule—and the false doctrine of the superiority of man."

"Better laws and better men to administer them; cleaner politics and better schools; the home a more powerful factor at the polls than ever before—these are a few of the blessings that equal suffrage has brought to Idaho—every one of them a convincing argument for the freedom of the women of Oregon."

Completely Regained Her Health.

Miss Edith Reams, 726 North Main St., Dayton, O., writes:

"I suffered for some time with both lung and female troubles."

"I had been under the treatment of a good physician for about nine months without obtaining any relief, when Peruna was recommended to me. After taking twelve bottles of this medicine I have completely regained my health."

"I am pleased to recommend Peruna to any one suffering from the above allments."—Edith Reams.

America is the Land of Nervous Women.

The majority of women are nervous because they suffer from some form of female disease.

The greatest obstacle in the way of recovery is that they do not understand that catarrh is the main source of their illness.

Women who are in doubt as to their ailments should write to Dr. Hartman,
President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O. Give him a full description of your symptoms, previous treatment and age.

He will promptly reply with instructions for treatment, free of charge.

FREE TRAINING.

Women of Small Towns and Country Districts to be Favored.

By the terms of a fund to be administered in connection with the Philadelphia School for Nurses, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, a number of young women from every county will receive free training in Nursing. It is planned to ultimately reach and help in this way every village and township.

The young women will be provided with room, board, nurse uniforms and all the refinements of a well appointed Christian home. At graduation the diploma of the School and the Order of the Red Cross will be conferred, qualifying for practice in any State or county; then the railroad fare will be paid back home.

Those applying and chosen to receive the benefits of this fund will be given two years' training, with a rich experience in nursing, the sick poor of the city under skilled leaders.

The term may be shortened to eighteen months by taking a preliminary course of six months, reading and study at home. A special sheet course enables young women to quickly qualify themselves for self support and a substantial income.

In addition to regular nursing, the young women are taught how to preserve their own health; how to recognize, avoid and destroy contagion; how to establish and maintain perfect sanitary conditions about the home; they are prepared for positions as office nurse and physician's assistant; they get a practical knowledge of City Mission movements, Deaconess training, college settlement work, and are trained for special positions of trust in institutions.

The School is ten years old and is endorsed by physicians, leading educators and prominent men throughout the country.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

Miss Nell Donaldson Becomes Bride of Mr. H. H. Perkins.

The marriage of Mr. Henry Helm Perkins, of Elkhart, and Miss Nell D. Donaldson was solemnized at four o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. H. H. Abernathy. It was a home wedding of unusual beauty. The pretty parlors were handsomely decorated under the supervision of Miss Bettie Hoppe, flowers, evergreens and potted plants being used with rare taste and attractiveness.

Four little children—Dorothy Eekles, Sarah Cook, Henry Abernathy and William Tandy—acted as ribbon bearers.

Mrs. Joseph Donaldson, of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. H. H. Abernathy were matrons of honor and preceded the bridal couple. The ceremony was pronounced by Eld. H. D. Smith, of the Christian church, and immediately afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Perkins left on the 5:15 train for a bridal tour to Look-out Mountain and other points.

The bride is one of Hopkinsville's loveliest and most accomplished young women. She is a vocalist of rare gifts, and her singing possesses a sweetness and charm that never fail to delight those so fortunate as to hear her. She is a graduate of the noted Boston Academy of Music.

Many handsome bridal presents were received and several social events were given in the bride's honor. Last Friday evening the As You Like It Club entertained her, with Miss Alice Schooley as hostess and Monday evening the bridal couple were given a dinner by Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wilkinson.

The wedding was attended only by a limited number of intimate friends and the members of the As You Like It Club, of which the bride is a member.

Mr. Perkins is a young school teacher of fine promise and represents one of the leading families of Todd county.

The educational value of a visit to this menagerie cannot be overestimated.

TELEPHONE MERGER ON.

Perfecting By the Independent Companies This Week.

AN IMMENSE CONCERN.

Comprises Systems From New York to Kansas to City.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Announcement is made that the United States Independent Telephone Company completed its permanent organization at a meeting held in this city. Thomas W. Finucane, the new president of the company, says that the company authorized its collateral trust mortgage of $25,000,000, and the underlying securing will compromise a control of the Stromberg-Carlson Telephone Manufacturing Company, which manufactures 1,000 telephones a day, and the New York Independent Company, which owns franchises similar, it is claimed, in scope and character to those of the Bell Telephone Company.

The independent telephone lines represented directly or indirectly by or through one or more directors of the company, comprise systems which extend substantially from Kansas City, Mo., to New York. It is proposed to install a plant with an initial capacity of 225,000 telephones and an ultimate capacity of 750,000 telephones in New York City, and the tributary districts which environ it.

The directors include Adolphus Busch, of St. Louis; George Eastman, of Rochester; August Geheuer, of St. Louis; Robert C. Hall, of Pittsburgh; Joseph J. Helm, of Kansas City; Hendrick S. Holden, of Syracuse; Breckenridge Jones, of St. Louis; Eugene Satterlee, of Rochester; O. C. Snider, of Kansas City, and Thomas W. Finucane.

Finucane's Statement.

President Finucane made the following statement:

The formation of the United States Independent Telephone Company is the first step in the movement to furnish telephone companies with standard apparatus and with a guarantee that their supply cannot be cut off through the absorption of manufacturing companies in the Bell interests; to knit together in connecting systems the independent telephone lines of the country, which, unappreciated as the fact may be in the East, to-day considerably outnumber the lines owned or controlled by the Bell Telephone Company; and to aid independent telephone companies in the installation of their plants and improvements of their service.

There are to-day over 5,000 telephone companies in this country independent of the Bell systems. In response to the demand of these companies for products and appliances and for a centralized unity of action, the United States Independent Telephone Company has been incorporated.

The independent telephone lines represented directly or indirectly by or through one or another of our directors comprise systems which extend substantially from Kansas City, Mo., to New York.

New York Rights.

In result we acquired and now own franchise rights in New York City which, in the opinion of our attorneys, are similar in scope and character to those of the Bell Telephone Company.

We propose to make the subject of the installation of a plant with a present capacity of 225,000 phones and an ultimate capacity of 750,000 phones for New York City and the tributary districts which environ it.

Our company to-day authorized its collateral trust mortgage of $25,000,000, and the underlying securities will comprise a control of the Stromberg-Carlson Telephone Manufacturing Company, which manufactures a thousand telephones a day, and the New York Independent Company, which latter owns the franchise rights above referred to. The bonds will be 5 per cent, collateral thirty-year gold bonds. The trustee of the mortgage is the Security Trust Company, of Rochester, N. Y. The coupons will be payable at its office and also at the Chemical National Bank, of New York City.

TO CITY PATRONS.

Our city circulation is becoming so heavy and difficult to handle satisfactorily by the carrier system, without the employment of a city circulator, that we prefer to have as many as possible of the city papers mailed through the postoffice, at least during the winter. They cannot be delivered by the postoffice carriers, but may be mailed to those who have boxes, or to any subscribers who will call for the paper through the general delivery window. This method is most satisfactory in many respects to those who can send or go to the postoffice, and insures promptness of delivery, as all papers are mailed the night before the date of issuance. We would be glad to have all subscribers who have boxes at the postoffice, and as many others as possible, authorize us to transfer their papers from the carriers' list to the postoffice list. Let us hear from you.

"A BREEZY TIME"

Company Has a Brass Band And Give Parade.

You talk about "A Breezy Time," which appears at Holland's Opera House next Friday night, why a Kansas cyclone is not in it. In the first act there is a burlesque boxing match between the eccentric and dutch comedians—the long and short of it. One day last week the eccentric gave the Dutchman an upper cut which "knocked him out" and delayed the play several minutes, and still the audience did not seem to trouble.

A prize fighter who is in the audience, and who, it is claimed, had stood before Jeffries, was heard to remark that it was the best imitation he ever saw.

Who is there that does not like music—and especially fine music? "A Breezy Time" has a fine brass band, playing nothing but the very best selections, and those who want to hear will have a chance, as the band makes a parade daily.

GREAT HORSE SHOW.

650 Horses, All Thoroughbreds, With Ringling Bros.

The horse is man's favorite in all animal creation. It serves his needs best, and adds to his luxuries. He is nearest to his master in intelligence, sympathies and even traits of vanity. Take the well bred horse, where, in all animal creation, will his counterpart be found in symmetry of form, grace of action and inspiring spirit? Watch the aristocrat of horseflesh, he of pedigree and education, and delight will charge the blood as in no other case. America is first among the nations in the breeding of the highest type of horse, and the finest collection of these beasts is to be found with Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows. It has been a pride and specialty with them to gather this distinguished and unique company. Over 650 are in this department of their ultra big shows. Of this number—more than twice as many horses of all kinds carried by any other show—300 are thoroughbred performing horses. The mental alertness, physical beauty and distinguished style of these animals, put them in a class by themselves, beyond price, and unrivaled in the world. The horsemen engaged for the direction and riding of these remarkable equines are masters of their profession, internationally famous. This is in keeping with the policy of Ringling Brothers to present only the best, and insure ring work simply delightful to witness, and far removed from what is unfortunately seen with other shows. These blue-blooded and wonderfully performing horses are an attraction without a peer in the whole range of horse history, and afford an exhibition well worth any inconvenience or price to witness. Every kind of riding is vividly exemplified by masters of the equestrian art. Gladiatorial feats of the ancients, jockey daring, rough riders' tactics, modish equestrianism, difficult acrobaticism, juggling deeds, sensational gymnastic exploits, balancing wonders, somersaulting from back to back, and whirling continuously in this feat until a circle of separated horses is completely—these, and many more difficult and awe-inspiring achievements are shown with Ringling Brothers' incomparable exhibition.

Ringling Brothers' wonderful shows will exhibit at Hopkinsville Wednesday, Oct. 25. The magnificent street parade will leave the show grounds promptly at 10 o'clock on the morning of show day. Numbered reserved seats, at the same price charged at the ticket wagon, can be reserved on the date of exhibition at the store of The Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., corner of 9th and Main streets.

MERCURY TUMBLES.

Cool Snap Tuesday Night and Yesterday Morning.

Though two or three weeks behind time, the equinoctial cold rain and wind storm arrived. There was a light frost of rain before daylight Tuesday, but later there was a good downpour. About 3 p. m. the cold cold wave came, accompanied by high wind. An observation was taken at 6 p. m. and the government thermometer registered 50 degrees. The temperature gradually dropped through the night and by yesterday morning it was real cool, frost being seen by some in all parts of the city.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, kept him out of his grave. He says, "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore throats or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c and $1.00 bottles at R. C. Hardwick's drug store. Trial bottle free.

Publishers' Notice.

With the October number Bob Taylor's Magazine enters upon its second volume; and this number shows a uniformity of excellence which places it in the front rank of the national magazines of eminence and prestige. The slight crudities of some early numbers, incident to every new periodical, have disappeared. Bob Taylor's Magazine is sure of its ground and secure in its field.

The contents for October are admirably diversified, comprising poetry, fiction, biography, history, science and essays on many interesting subjects.

The frontpiece is a gem—an illustrated poem, entitled "A Southern Night," by Carl Holliday. Other poems of merit are: "Sunset on Mobile Bay," by Ethel Morrison Lackey; "The Haunted House," by Wm. McD. Goodman; "The Kentucky Magellan," by Lula Clark Markham; and "A Burro's Revolt," by Harry Ellard (the "poet laureate").

The fiction is entertaining and of high class. It includes "A Couple of Models," by John Leisk Tait; "The Story of The Sons and Daughters," by Anne McQueen; "The Old Fiddle," by A. P. Starke; "Sis Sapphie's Mohini," by Annie Booth McKinney; "The Guide," by Joseph A. Altsheler; "Percy Encounters Moral Responsibility," by Eva Williams Malone; and "The Foreign Wife," the continued story attracting so much attention which has reached such an exciting point that readers can hardly wait for the instalments.

WONDERFUL MUMMY

IT IS ON EXHIBITION AT PORTLAND, OREGON, EXPOSITION.

Visitors say it resembles John D. Rockefeller and it attracts lots of attention from the crowds.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 8.—Servants delving in the clay of the John Day district in eastern Oregon a few days ago unearthed the remains of a three-footed mummy of prehistoric times, but this discovery has not created half the stir that must be credited to a certain mummy of ancient Egypt which reposes on a wooden platform as a free show in the Streets of Cairo concession on the Trail at the Lewis and Clark exposition. It has been dubbed "The Rockefeller Mummy."

This mummy is the oldest man, by several thousand years, at the exposition. It is also the ghastliest human relic ever exposed to view in the northwest. Ordinarily when a mummy is put on exhibition one may see only the exterior wrappings. Through the thick wrappings of mummy cloth this particular mummy is startlingly visible to the naked eye. The ancient cerements have been unwrapped from his head, chest, arms and feet and from his right leg almost to the thigh.

Egyptian writings on the wrappings and on the surface of the wooden coffin have been partly deciphered by learned men, who aver that this relic is the mummy of a rich nabob of the Nile country, who lived about 2,500 years before the beginning of the Christian era. The mummy, therefore, is about 4,400 years old.

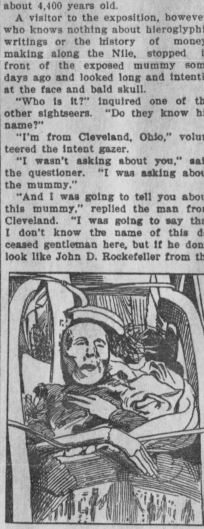

A visitor to the exposition, however, who knows nothing about hieroglyphic writings or the history of money-making along the Nile, stopped in front of the exposed mummy some days ago and looked long and intently at the face and bald skull.

"Who is it?" inquired one of the other sightseers. "Do they know his name?"

"I'm from Cleveland, Ohio," volunteered the intent gazer.

"I wasn't asking about you," said the questioner. "I was asking about the mummy."

"And I was going to tell you about this mummy," replied the man from Cleveland. "I was going to say that I don't know the name of this deceased gentleman here, but if he don't look like John D. Rockefeller from me see nose up I'll eat a chunk out of his coffin."

The crowd agreed that the resemblance was somewhat striking, and now the eager throngs gather about the ghastly relic and wonder if Standard Oil ever was poured upon the troubled waters of the Nile in the days of the great Ramesses. Irreverent humor has named this "the Rockefeller Mummy," and some of the jokes made at its expense and at the expense of Mr. Rockefeller are even ghastlier than the mummy itself.

There appears to be something uncannily irresistible about this mummy. People frequently stand and gaze at it for several minutes at a time, and turn away only to go back and have another look. Near by is a row of sales booths, where foreign ladies and gentlemen seek to sell all manner of oriental fancies, and behind one counter stands a buxom matron from Sanboul whose method of attracting attention to her wares is to cry: "Have a look! Have a look! Have a look!" The visiting public has mistaken this for a "have a look at the mummy," and many persons are attracted to the Egyptian deceased by this means. There are several other mummies, some of them much prettier than the one with the peculiar resemblance, but they are still swathed in their cerements and attract scant attention.

BUT!

Mrs. Blue—Don't you think your daughter uses a great deal of slang?

Mrs. True—Yes; but she says she can't express her thoughts without it.

"Indeed! My daughter doesn't use any slang at all!"

"Of course! But really, don't you think it is better to express one's thoughts badly than never to have any thoughts at all?"—Detroit Free Press.

The Benefits of Travel.

Friend—What's that box on the front of your machine?

Automobile—That's a camera for taking moving pictures. You see, I go so fast I don't have time to look at the scenery, and so I photograph it as I go along.—Illustration.

ECHOES

From the Carnival Served In Small Doses.

The colored population was very much in evidence on the streets Saturday, but not so much on the carnival grounds.

Reckless Russell, who was injured by his bicycle-dive Tuesday night, performed the feat Friday night.

The voting contest was declared off Thursday, as it was found to be a losing game, the public not voting enough to make it profitable.

"It was the biggest and best yet," seems to be the general opinion.

Russell kisses his wife farewell every time he starts up the incline to make a dive.

The county fair part of the carnival, though not what it was expected, was "some pumpkin"—there were thirteen of the largest ever grown here.

There were comparatively few drunken men on the streets and none allowed on the grounds.

Now that it's over everyone is experiencing a feeling of relief. By spring they will want another.

The local Fraternal Union is well satisfied with their part of the proceeds, as they are now several hundred dollars better off. The money will go into the general treasury of the order.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, the up to date druggists at Hopkinsville.

Several Kentucky bankers are in Washington this week.

Nothing to Fear.

The question of injurious substance in medicines which has been agitating minds of many people, does not concern those who use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give it to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For sale by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, the up to date druggists at Hopkinsville.

John Ruhkamp, well known in Louisville, is dead.

Caution!

Persons when traveling should exercise care in the use of drinking water. As a safeguard it is urged that every traveler secure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy before leaving home, to be carried in the hand luggage. This may prevent distressing sickness and annoying delay. For sale by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, the up to date druggists at Hopkinsville.

Sluggishness is only selfishness turned sour.

"It was almost a miracle. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a terrible breaking out all over the body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge, West Cornwall, Conn.

GRAND LARCENY CHARGED.

One of the Attractions of the Late Carnival Returned.

A LONG TRIP BACK.

Judge Knight Heard Statement and Set Girl Free.

Unexpectedly and without warning to the manager of the Parker Carnival Co., Miss Madeline McIntyre, the young lady whose specialty was to loop-the-loop in the ball down an inclined plane, left the company here Friday and went to Paris, Ky., and joined another company there. After her departure a member of the company, by the name of W. A. Snider, went to Judge Knight and swore out a warrant of arrest, stating that the young lady had stolen a valuable diamond ring. His honor was loth to issue the warrant, but so persistent was Snider that he yielded. Officer Booth Morris, armed with his warrant of arrest, went to Paris and returned to the city Monday night with his fair prisoner.

The young lady was not taken to prison but spent the night at Hotel Latham. Tuesday afternoon she appeared in the city court and made her statement.

From what she said it looks like her accuser was actuated by jealousy. She did not deny taking the diamond ring with her, but said that Snyder had loaned it to her and that she had been wearing it for some time. After hearing both sides of the case Judge Knight became convinced that there was really nothing criminal in the case and dismissed it. The young lady took the 6:18 afternoon train and will continue her daring act with the company with which she now has an engagement. She returned the ring to the owner, who will, no doubt, be more particular in loaning rings and swearing out warrants in the future.

The little episode was the cause of a long and expensive trip to the show woman as well as to the commonwealth and the loop-the-loopist will doubtless avoid anything of the kind in the future.

LARGE CROWD

Inspects the New Offices of L. & N. R. R.

Tuesday night Mr. J. C. Hooe, the local agent of the L. & N., kept open house for everybody. He had about 400 callers. All the furniture had been received and everything was in apple-pie order for the reception of visitors. Lebkuecher's band, which is one of the finest in this section, discoursed the sweetest of music, and a more jolly and delighted crowd could not be found.

Callers began putting in their appearance as early as 7 o'clock and continued to go and come until the clock in the tower told the hour of eleven. The doors of every department were thrown wide open to the public and Mr. Hooe excelled himself in playing the agreeable host to all. The new and commodious offices and the freight room, reaching to Eighth street, were made light as day from the innumerable electric bulbs, the clerks wore their most pleasing smiles, agent Hooe was in high, good humor and took pleasure in answering the hundreds of questions put to him, while the inspiring notes of Lebkuecher's band floated on the ambient air, and the chattering, moving throng were lavish in their praises of everything to be seen. But there was no happier soul there than Mr. Hooe. His dream of years had been realized. He had planned and labored for years to get such a building for freight and offices, and his face beamed with pleasure at the interest of the people who had called to see his new quarters and who warmly congratulated him on his success.

Bowling Green's horse show is in progress this week at the fair grounds.

DEATH OF MRS. LACKEY.

Was Ill Six Weeks Before Being Taken to Nashville.

SHE WAS 52 YEARS OLD.

Funeral Services at Pembroke and Burial Took Place in Hopkinsville.

Mrs. Tenora Elgin Lackey, the wife of Dr. G. W. Lackey, of Pembroke, died at a sanitarium in Nashville Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock, in the 52nd year of her age.

Mrs. Lackey had been ill with typhoid fever six weeks before being carried to Nashville, and had not fully regained her strength when the physicians decided it would be best for her to undergo an operation at a sanitarium. After entering the sanitarium it was not deemed wise to perform an operation and she was put under medical treatment. For awhile her condition seemed to improve, and the day before her death was the most hopeful one after reaching Nashville. As the night waned, alarming symptoms appeared and she passed peacefully to rest at 2 o'clock.

The remains were brought to Pembroke Tuesday and funeral services were held in the Methodist church yesterday morning, conducted by Rev. Dr. Gill, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and Rev. A. D. Litchfield, of the Methodist church. After the services the body, accompanied by relatives and many loving friends, was brought here and interred in Hope-well.

Mrs. Lackey was a model Christian woman. In early life she united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church and was always active in the work of her denomination. Always bright and vivacious, generous and kind, she endeared herself to everyone coming within the sphere of her influence.

In 1884 she became the second wife of Dr. G. W. Lackey, one of the prominent physicians of the county, who, with her three children, Misses Ruby and Camille, and George, survives her.

She was the elder sister of Mrs. W. B. Kennedy, of this city. She was a sister of Rev. Virgil Elgin, of the Methodist church; Messrs. G. W. Elgin, of Madisonville, Samuel P. Elgin, of this county, and W. S. Louis, Edgar and Frank Elgin, of this city. Her aged mother, who now makes her home here with her sons, Edgar and Frank, also survives her.

AGED 67 YEARS.

James L. McLeur Dies at Kansas City.

A dispatch from Kansas City, Mo., to the Louisville Times Tuesday, announced the death of James L. McLeur, a former citizen of this place, at the age of 67 years. Mr. McLeur was a brother of John McLeur. His father, Jack McLeur, kept what was then known as the "McLeur House," the old Phoenix hotel. In 1862 the family left here and went to Missouri. At the breaking out of the civil war James McLeur enlisted in the Confederate army and attained the rank of major. After the war he located at Kansas City and engaged in the insurance business, in which he was engaged when he died. He was born here March 6, 1838.

The Sick.

Prof. Wm. H. Harrison, of Russellville, is reported to be very ill with appendicitis. His sister, Mrs. J. W. Downer, left for Russellville yesterday to be with him.

The condition of Mrs. M. C. Long was unimproved yesterday afternoon and it is not expected that she will survive but a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Tate both have been quite sick at their home on West Seventh street. Mrs. Tate is some better, but Mr. Tate is still quite ill with fever.
